SELECTION OF WINNERS

An impartial, anonymous selection committee composed of agricultural professionals will select the winners in April of each year. In evaluating the applicants, the committee will consider their high school academic records and standardized test results. However the primary considerations will be toward selecting well-rounded applicants with strong desires about the agricultural industry. Therefore extracurricular activities and evidence of genuine interest in agriculture are important. The required essays are an important part of the evidence to be considered. Please feel free to answer them on a separate page if you believe it is necessary, however legibility is important and each answer should be no more than 500 words. Please request reference letters from three individuals. Show them this application and have them send letters directly to us.
