News for our week

A Building With Four Walls And Tomorrow Inside

October 26, 2018

Dear Parents,

Thank you for all the wonderful participation in our Parent/Teacher Conferences. We always look forward to working with you to make our angels successful in all they do. I know we are a school and we concentrate a lot on the academic side of our children's lives, but we also see concern for the emotional/social side of growing up. Questions that came up at conferences are: How is my child doing, really? Are they the kind kid? Are they the helpful kid? Are they the kid that helps when not asked? Are they the kid that volunteers? Are they the kid that plays well with others? Are they taking risks to do better? Are they the kid who is the friend? Are they the kid who stands up for others? Are they the kid who helps their friends make better choices in playing and language?

Questions like this strengthen our home/school relationship. These are questions you can ask when you get home together, and then conversation can start about who they positively interacted with and why. Positive talk at home helps to work through some not-so-positive moments throughout the day, too.

We have a couple of events coming up that I look forward to seeing everyone: 1st Friday socials are beginning, Literacy Night-ZooZort at McMillan Library (it is not at SV as has been in previous years), open gym, and a movie night. Remember that next week has a Holy Day of Obligation on Thursday so our Wednesday mass is taking place on Thursday, November 1 at 9:00. Also, if you find that you have an extra hour to volunteer for a part of the day, please let us know. We are in pursuit of read alouders, lunch room help, math fact practicers, etc.

Thank you, also, for your patience as we worked through the power outage in the middle of the day last Friday. We keep you all in our prayers each day.

Peace to you,

Mrs. Fochs
