Dear OLQH Families,

It was encouraging to see so many participants in our fall parent teacher conferences. We are very interested in having a partnership with you and in working with you to help your child achieve many successes this school year. Here are some suggestions of what you can do to help maintain strong parent teacher partnerships.

- Talk with your child about school each day (for example, ask them to tell you something good that happened at school) and review the information the school sends home.
- Monitor your child's schoolwork. If your child struggles with an assignment, ask the teacher how you can help.
- Make sure your child has everything they need to complete their assignments.
- Review the school handbook and teacher expectations with your child. Let your child know that you expect them to follow the school rules as well as their teacher's expectations.

Thank you for entrusting your child into our care, as we educate them for life. They are a precious gift to everyone!

Sincerely,
Ms. Shelley Bruley

HALLOWEEN GUIDELINES FOR PARENTS AND STUDENTS

Halloween is quickly approaching and the staff at OLQH would like you to know that we have the following expectations for the students on the day of Halloween room parties (Thursday, October 28th):

1. Costumes should be non-violent in nature.
2. No makeup, weapons or other props will be allowed.
3. Students should be able to put on their costumes by themselves.
4. Please send costumes in a separate bag.

Reading Awards

Congratulations To Mauricio
and Claire!
They have both read over 100,000 words.

GUEST SPEAKERS

We love having visitors again! Especially when they teach us fun, interactive lessons.

Mrs. Anne Zacher (left) read a book in Spanish and then taught our 2nd graders how to count in Spanish.

Mrs. Arnold (right) taught our 2nd graders all about animals native to Wisconsin. From ticks to elk, she knew it all!

OLQH BIRTHDAY BREAKFAST

Every month, we celebrate our birthday students with a special breakfast with Ms. Bruley.
