Dear OLQH Families,

The students and staff wish to thank all the veterans who attended our Veteran's Day Mass on November 9. Our veterans fought valiantly for our freedoms so that we could live in a country where we can practice our faith, live without oppression, and enjoy the bounty and opportunities God has given us. Thank you veterans for your sacrifice and service to our nation!

As we continue to study our November virtue, Love for God, our students are learning about how showing gratitude can build their Love for God. Below you will find some suggestions on what you can do at home to help cultivate gratitude in your children.

- Take the "no-complaints challenge." As a family, commit to going twenty-four hours without complaining about anything. After the twenty-four hours are up, have a discussion on how it went.
- Take a gratitude walk. Go for a walk as a family and name things you see that you are grateful for.
- Keep a daily gratitude journal as a family. As part of your meal or bedtime prayers, ask each family member to name something from their day for which they are grateful.
- Model gratitude for your children. Your children will learn from you when they see and hear you expressing gratitude.

May the goodness of the Lord fill your life and home this weekend,
Ms. Shelley Bruley

"This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it" - Psalm 118:24

Mrs. Zacher

What grade do you teach? How long have you been teaching?

I am the office lady. I have been in this position for 3 years.

What is your favorite thing about teaching at OLQH?

I love almost everything about my job but the families, staff, and students make it the best.

What are 3 words you would use to describe OLQH?

Fun, friendly, caring

What is one food you cannot resist?

Almost any fried food

Where is your favorite place to be?

Anywhere my family is but especially at home together, watching a Packer game, and eating good food.

If you could choose anyone, who would be your mentor?

It's hard to choose just one. There are lots of people I admire, but I especially look up to those people who live by their values, have a positive attitude, and a genuine interest in those around them.

What is something you learned in the last week?

This isn't new but it's hitting home more every day—invest in relationships, not things.

When you have 30 minutes of free time, how do you pass the time?

Cleaning or cooking

Tell us something that might surprise us about you?

I attended Kindergarten thru 8th grade at Our Lady Queen of Heaven.

Where is the best place you've traveled to and why?

I spent three years on the island of St. Vincent and the Grenadines. I loved it because the land was beautiful, the food was delicious, the weather was warm, and the people were generous and kind.
