A BUILDING WITH FOUR WALLS AND TOMORROW INSIDE

September 29, 2023

September sure has given us many blessings. It's very important for our communication that we keep on the same page. We have many avenues of communication that include: emails from teachers and office, planners, phone calls, Friday Folders, newsletters, and word of mouth. Thank you for returning the green Friday Folders each week.

Parent-Teacher conferences are coming up! Mark your calendar for Oct. 17th or 19th. Please sign up today, so we can keep the communication going.

Enjoy the weekend with friends and family. Stay safe, stay healthy, and stay kind.

Peace to you,

Mrs. Fochs

 recess!

- ▶ Set a regular time each day for doing homework. That time should be free of distractions such as TV and phone calls.
- ▶ Be sure your child has a place to do homework that is quiet and well lit. Make sure all the appropriate materials -- such as paper and pencils -- are available.
- ▶ Let your child know that homework is important and valuable. Consistently review your child's homework during homework time.

Farewell Br. Joe!

Br. Joe is on his way back to Bolivia again. He is a Mary Knoll Brother and works with boys who are left on the streets and abandoned. He has shown us how blessed we are to have families and school personnel to take care of our needs and education. Actually, we are the ones blessed because he spent his time with us. We pray for his mission.
