A BUILDING WITH FOUR WALLS AND TOMORROW INSIDE

January 5, 2024

Happy New Year Royal Families,

As we celebrate Epiphany this coming weekend, please keep in mind all the good things God has in store for you and your families.

Catholic Schools Week is coming up the last week of January. We will be planning our activities to promote our decision to be in a Catholic school. Please share all the good stories of our days together with those who are in need of the same learning environment that you are blessed with.

Continue to pray for those who need it most as we enter and leave through our doors each morning and afternoon, we make sure to take the blessing of being able to be together another day.

Stay safe, stay healthy, and stay kind.

Peace to you,

Mrs. Fochs

GET YOUR CHALK READY! THE TIME HAS COME.

Epiphany (also known as Twelfth Night, Theophany, or Three Kings Day) marks the occasion of a time-honored Christian tradition of "chalking the doors." The formula for the ritual - adapted for 2024 - is simple: take chalk of any color and write the following above the entrance of your home: 20 + C + M + B + 24.

The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi - Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar - who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross, and the "20" at the beginning and the "24" at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless those homes so marked and that He stay with those who dwell therein throughout the entire year.

Library LEARNERS

Mrs. Woollums has added more books to our collection. She keeps the new books out for a couple of weeks and introduces them to each of the library classes so the students know what is available to them.
